

2009 Langhorne Creek Cabernet Sauvignon

Sourced from the rich soils of Langhorne Creek, the 2009 Anvers Cabernet Sauvignon is the tenth release of this wine. The excellent, warm conditions experienced during vintage 2009 have provided a full-bodied wine of great colour, depth, and flavour concentration. Ageing in a combination of French and American oak barriques has imparted a subtle toastiness to the palate and has allowed the tannins to integrate and soften.

Tasting Notes

The 2009 Langhorne Creek Cabernet Sauvignon shows a deep red colour with rich blueberry and blackberry aromas backed by complex nuances of liquorice and eucalyptus. The full-bodied palate offers rich berry fruits in the company of mocha and mint accents with a velvety tannin backbone. A classic Langhorne Creek Cabernet.
